Manuscript Title:

Corresponding Author

Step 1. Authorship Responsibility, Criteria, and Contributions. Each author should meet all criteria below (A, B, C, and D) and should indicate general and specific contributions by reading criteria A, B, C, and D and checking the appropriate boxes.

- A. I certify that
- The manuscript represents original and valid work and that neither this manuscript nor one with substantially similar content under my authorship has been published or is being considered for publication elsewhere, except as described in the journal's submission form and cover letter submitted with the manuscript, and copies of closely related manuscripts have been provided; and
  - I agree to be accountable for all aspects of the work in ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved; and
  - If requested, I will provide the data or will cooperate fully in obtaining and providing the data on which the manuscript is based for examination by the editors or their assignees; and
  - For papers with more than 1 author, I agree to allow the corresponding author to serve as the primary correspondent with the editorial office, to review the edited manuscript and proof, and to make decisions regarding release of information in the manuscript to the media, federal agencies, or both; or, if I am the only author, I will be the corresponding author and agree to serve in the roles described above.
- B. I have given final approval of the submitted manuscript.
- C. I have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for (check 1 of 2 below)
- part of the content.
  - the whole content.

D. To qualify for authorship, you must check at least 1 box for each of the 3 categories of contributions listed below.

I have made substantial contributions to the intellectual content of the paper as described below.

1. Check at least 1 of 2 below

- conception or design
- acquisition, analysis, or interpretation of data

2. Check at least 1 of 2 below

- drafting of the manuscript
- critical revision of the manuscript for important intellectual content

- no additional contributions
- other

Step 1A. Acknowledgement Statement. Authors should obtain written permission from all individuals named in an Acknowledgment, since readers may infer their endorsement of data and conclusions. The corresponding author must check the following box:

I certify that all persons who have made substantial contributions to the work reported in this manuscript (eg, data collection, analysis, writing or editing assistance) but who do not fulfill the authorship criteria are named, along with their specific contributions in an Acknowledgment in the manuscript—and all such persons have provided me with written permission to be named.

Step 2. Confirmation of Reporting of Funding and Conflicts of Interest. Please check A and B. Also check C or D.

A. I certify that all funding, or other financial support, and material support for this work are clearly identified in the manuscript.

B. I have completed the ICMJE for Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest (available at <http://www.icmje.org>) and will submit it to JAMA.

C. I certify that all my potential conflicts of interest (as reported in the ICMJE form and summarized below), are disclosed in the Acknowledgment section of the manuscript.

The definitions and terms of such disclosures include

- All relevant financial interests, activities, relationships, and affiliations (including but not limited to employment/affiliation, grants or funding, consultancies, honoraria, and payment, speakers bureaus, stock ownership or options, expert testimony, royalties, donation of medical equipment, or patents planned, pending, or issued),
- Any potential conflicts of interest “involving the work under consideration for publication” (during the time involving the work, from initial conception and planning to present),
- Any “relevant financial activities outside the submitted work” (over the 5 years prior to submission), and
- Any “other relationships or activities that readers could perceive to have influenced, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing” what is written in the submitted work (based on all relationships that were present during the 5 years prior to submission).

OR

D. I have no potential conflicts of interest.

Step 3. Publishing Agreement.* All authors must select only 1 of the following: A, or B, or C.

A. Copyright Transfer. In consideration of the action of the American Medical Association (AMA) in reviewing and editing this submission (manuscript, tables, figures, video, audio, and other supplemental files for publication), I hereby transfer, assign, or otherwise convey all copyright ownership, including any and all rights incidental thereto, exclusively to the AMA, in the event that such works published by the AMA.

B. Federal Employment. I was an employee of the US federal government or that of another nation when this work was conducted and prepared for publication; therefore, it is not protected by the Copyright Act, and copyright ownership cannot be transferred.

C. Work for hire. I am employed by an institution that considers this submission a “work made for hire” and that requires an authorized representative of the institution to assign copyright on my behalf.
