2015 Pricing for Institutions
AMA Site Licenses

Site licenses provide the widest possible access, offering your users seamless access when logged in to your institution’s network—either at work or remotely. Give your patrons convenient access to the high-impact medical information and commentary they need—when and where they need it.

• Includes perpetual access to licensed content
• Allows simultaneous, seamless access to leading medical information
• Includes online-only supplements and Online First articles
• Custom solutions available for multisite organizations, consortia, national health systems, membership organizations, multinational corporations, and other non-standard organizations
• Institutions may register an unlimited number of IP addresses
• The AMA publications support access via Athens and Shibboleth
• Print copies of any title are available at a discounted rate with a site license purchase

Online Features

Online First
The JAMA Network is now expediting and publishing more articles ahead of print

PowerPoint Image Downloads
All of the JAMA Network sites allow readers to download images to PowerPoint slides with one click—useful for lectures and educational presentations.

Multimedia Index
View animated figures, interactives, and videos that enhance the learning process.

RSS Feeds
Deliver titles, abstracts, and links to full-text articles

Advanced Search
Driven by innovative, semantic technology that recognizes concepts instead of distinct search terms, and produces more targeted, meaningful results

Citation Manager
Output citation data to RIS (Zotero), EndNote, BibTex, Medlars, ProCite, RefWorks, Reference Manager

E-mail Alerts
Readers can choose among alert options, such as topic, author, or search, or sign up to receive tables of contents by e-mail and to be alerted when new articles are released early

COUNTER-compliant Usage Statistics
Track your institution’s usage with COUNTER-compliant usage statistics, included with your site license.

Digital Preservation
The AMA Publishing Group has partnered with CLOCKSS and Portico to ensure that our content remains available to the global research community.

The JAMA+9 site license includes:
• JAMA
• JAMA Dermatology
• JAMA Facial Plastic Surgery
• JAMA Internal Medicine
• JAMA Neurology
• JAMA Ophthalmology
• JAMA Otolaryngology–Head & Neck Surgery
• JAMA Pediatrics
• JAMA Psychiatry
• JAMA Surgery
