CORRECTION

Error in Text: The Original Investigation “Severity and Etiology of Incident Stroke in Patients Screened for Atrial Fibrillation vs Usual Care and the Impact of Prior Stroke: A Post Hoc Analysis of the LOOP Randomized Clinical Trial,” published online August 29, 2022, had an error in the Statistical Analysis section of the text. The cutoff for statistical significance should read \( P < .05 \) rather than \( P > .05 \). This error has been corrected online.
