Mission Statement: To be the indispensable source of ophthalmic knowledge by promptly publishing innovative, clinically relevant research through consistent and authoritative peer review and, thereby, to be the first choice of authors for their important manuscripts.

JAMA Ophthalmology is a member of JAMA Network, a consortium of peer-reviewed medical publications that includes JAMA and the JAMA Network journals. JAMA Ophthalmology does not hold itself responsible for statements made by authors of the works it publishes, and does not reflect the policy of the Journal, the American Medical Association, or the institution with which the author is affiliated, unless otherwise indicated. ©2022 American Medical Association.
